River Park Nursery School depends on parent involvement. Some parents help in the classroom or accompany children on field trips. Other serve on the Executive Board or a committee or help with school programs or activities. Families are also asked to support River Park's fundraising efforts. Finally, parents are expected to attend school parent meetings, generally held twice a year. By submitting this application, you agree to share in these responsibilities if your child attends River Park.

River Park Nursery School does not discriminate based on ethnic, racial, economic, or other diversities among its membership.
